ADDRESS

Tonight
6:00 p.m.

Thank you for being with us on this Lord's Day. My wife and I are excited about the opportunities that God has given this local church.

We are pioneering new ministries to touch lives more than ever before as a church family.

We hope you will rejoice with us concerning the open doors before us. May we walk by faith as we press on "together with God".

National High School Basketball
Tournament of Champions

After a win and a loss on the first day of the tournament, our young men won three games on Friday to advance to the championship game in the downtown Summit Arena in Hot Springs, Arkansas. Playing their fourth game of the day, they played with heart and character, and finished second to the host team.
